

Friday, 21st February and Friday,
28th February both at 10.30 am

BOOKING FORM

Visit Details

Penlee has a collection of many 1000s of local photographs from 1870 onwards. This exhibition shows people hard at work alongside delightful images of swimmer, fairs carnivals and days on the beach.

There will be two guided tours, on Friday, 21st February and on Friday, 28th February, both starting at 10.30 am and both followed by an optional group lunch (food/drink to be paid for on the day). Please indicate your preferred date, on the booking form below, and whether or not you wish to stay for lunch.

You will usually need to stand for aprox 15 mins at the beginning of the tour, but after that folding chairs will be available. The exhibition and cafe are fully wheelchair accessible. There is low-cost, long-term parking accessible from Alverton Rd/Wellington Place. For further details, see Penlee House website.
